

JIMY FRANK OBLITAS CRUZ

Ingeniero Agroindustrial con Maestría en Ciencias, Mención en Microbiología y Tecnología de alimentos y doctor en Ciencia y Tecnología Agraria y Alimentaria – Universidad de Lleida (España). Fue director académico y Decano de Ingeniería de la Universidad Privada del Norte y director de la unidad de Investigación Agraria en la Universidad Nacional de Cajamarca. Actualmente es Docente investigador en la Universidad Privada del Norte, donde participa en investigaciones en la línea de ingeniería de alimentos y en un proyecto financiado por FONDECYT y el Banco Mundial. Adicionalmente lidera esfuerzos en Investigación, innovación y desarrollo de productos agrarios y agroindustriales, participando como integrante de equipos para dar solución a problemas corporativos y proyectos de gran escala relacionados a la Gestión de desarrollo agrario, gestión de la investigación e informática aplicada a la agricultura
